Prayer for Child Protection

Lord,

You asked that the little children be allowed to come to you; for it is such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

You entrust them to the care and protection of our communities of faith.

Guide us as we strive to ensure that our catholic communities provide a safe environment for each child.

We pray especially for all those who have been harmed in their childhood. Give them courage in facing the past and lead them to your healing protection. Amen

The Search for Home

'More than anything else, we long for home. Our deep ache for intimacy, security, and comfort is, in the end, a longing for home, nothing more. We are forever restlessly searching for someone or something to take us home. But what is home? Is home a family? A house? A city? A country? A lover? A language? An ethnic group?

'Home is a place in the heart, not a bloodline, building, city, or ethnicity. Home is that deep, fragile place where we hold and guard what's most precious to us. It's that place where, in some dark way, we remember that once, before we came to awareness, we were caressed by hands far gentler than any we've met in this life and where we were once kissed by a truth and a beauty so perfect that they are now the unconscious standard by which we measure everything. Home is where things "ring true", where what's most precious to us is cherished, the place of tender conscience, of intimacy.

'And we know when we're there and when we're not. Home is a gut feeling, a resting place, a goodness, a security that we sense or don't sense. T.S. Eliot once said, "Home is where we start from." It's also the place from which we understand what does or does not bring us life.'

Entrance – Come as you Are Come as you are, that's how I want you.

Come as you are, feel quite at home.

Close to my heart, loved and forgiven;

Come as you are, why stand alone?

No need to fear, love sets no limits.

No need to fear, love never ends. Don't run away shamed and disheartened.

Rest in my love, trust me again.

I came to call sinners, not just the virtuous.

I came to bring peace, not to condemn.

Each time you fail to live by my promise,

Why do you think I'd love you the less?

Come as you are, that's how I love you.

Come as you are, trust me again. Nothing can change the love that I bear you,

All will be well, just come as you are.

Offertory – In Bread We Bring you

(Celebration Hymnal Kevin Mayhew)

In bread we bring you Lord, our bodies labour.

In wine we offer you our spirits grief.

We do not ask you, Lord, who is my neighbor?

But stand united now, one in belief.

Oh we have gladly heard your Word, your holy Word,
And now in answer Lord, our gifts we bring.

Our selfish hearts make true, our failing faith renew.

Our lives belong to you, our Lord and King.

The bread we offer you is blessed and broken,
And it becomes for us our spirits' food.

Over the cup we bring your Word is spoken;

Make it your gift to us, your healing blood.

Take all that daily toil plants in our heart's poor soil

Take all we start and spoil, each hopeful dream,

The chances we have missed, the graces we resist,

Lord, in thy Eucharist, take and redeem.

Communion – One /Bread One Body

One bread, one body, one Lord of all,

One cup of blessing, which we bless.

And we, though many, throughout the earth,

We are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free, Woman or man, no more.

One bread, one body, etc.

Many the gifts, many the works, One in the Lord of all.

One bread, one body, etc.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,

Gathered to one, for all.

One bread, one body etc.

I Have Loved You GA402

Michael Joncas

I have loved you with an everlasting love

I have called you, and you are mine

I have loved you with an everlasting love

I have called you, and you are mine

seek the face of the lord and long
for him he will bring you his light and his peace

I have loved you with an everlasting love
I have called you, and you are
mine
I have loved you with an
everlasting love
I have called you, and you are
mine

seek the face of the lord and long
for him
he will bring you his joy and his hope

I have loved you with an
everlasting love
I have called you, and you are
mine
I have loved you with an
everlasting love
I have called you, and you are
mine

Recessional – Praise to the Lord, the Almighty (CWB 792)

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
The king of creation!
O my soul, praise him for he is your health and salvation.
All you hear, now to his altar draw near; join in profound adoration.

Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at the altar.
Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter.

Christ the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

Praise to the Lord, who will prosper our work and defend us; Surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend us; Ponder anew what the almighty can do,
Who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord!
O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now in praises before him!
Let the amen sound from his people again,
Now as we worship before him.

The Love Between God and His Creation

'Reality, then is born of the word, as creatura Verbi, and everything is called to serve the word.
Creation is the setting in which the entire history of the love between God and his creation develops; hence human salvation is the reason underlying everything. Contemplating the cosmos from the perspective of salvation history, we come to realize the unique and singular position occupied by man in creation: "God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him: male and female he created them" (Gen 1:27). This enables us to acknowledge fully the precious gifts received from the Creator: the value of our body, the gift of reason, freedom and conscience.'
Excerpt from Post-Synod document, Verbum Domini, Pope Benedict XVI.

Prayer

'Do not look for God in place or space. Close the eyes of your body, chain your imagination and go down into yourself: there you reach the Holy of Holies where the Holy Spirit dwells.' Fr Karl Rahner SJ provided by the Benedictine Sisters, Benedictine Abbey, Jamberoo.

Feast Days of the Week

Tue 24 Jan St Francis de Sales (1567-1622)

Born into a family of means, Francis studied law before hearing the message to 'Leave all and follow me.' which he took as a call to the priesthood. Bishop of Geneva at age 35, he spent time with children whenever he could. A friend of Saint Vincent de Paul, he helped found the Order of the Visitation with Saint Jeanne de Chantal. The value of his writings led to his being declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Blessed Pius IX in 1877, and a patron of writers and journalists by Pope Pius XI in 1923. The Salesians of Don Bosco, the Oblates of Saint Francis de Sales, and the Missionaries of Saint Francis de Sales are named in his honour.

Wed 25 Jan The Conversion of St.
Paul

Paul's entire life can be explained in terms of one experience—his meeting with Jesus on the road to Damascus. From being a persecutor of the Church he became a slave of Christ, helping others to come to know Jesus as their Saviour. He could say of himself: "I live now not with my own life but with the life of Christ who lives in me." (Gal 2:20)

Sat 28 Jan St Thomas Aquinas(1224-1274)

Doctor of the Church, Dominican priest and one of the greatest theologians of the Church, Thomas Aquinas is known as the 'Angelic Doctor', author of the Summa Theologica. Born of a noble family in Aquino, a town in southern Italy from which he takes his surname. In the year before his death, he had a mystical experience in the light of which he felt that everything he had written seemed worthless.
