3rd June, 2012 Most Holy Trinity

Entrance Procession
Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God,
and also the Holy Spirit,
for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:32-34. 39-40

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 32:4-6. 9. 18-20. 22

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.
By his word the heavens were made,
by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke: and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being.
The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.
Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you.

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: Romans 8:14-17

Gospel Acclamation: cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

When We Pray.....

'When we pray we have to open ourselves to the presence and the action of the Holy Spirit in order to turn ourselves to God with our whole heart and our whole being.' Prayer, therefore, is mainly 'the action of the Holy Spirit in our humanity that takes charge of our weakness and transforms us from persons who are bound to material reality into spiritual persons. Our relationship with God becomes so deep that it is no longer affected by deeds or situations. We understand that prayer doesn't free us from trials or tribulations but we can live them in union with Christ, with His suffering, in view of also participating in His glory.'

'Many times we ask God to deliver us from physical and spiritual evil. However, we often have the impression that he doesn't hear us and we run the risk of becoming discouraged and of not persevering. In reality, there is no human cry that God does not hear!'

- Pope Benedict XVI, Rome May 16, 2012

Prayer for Child Protection

Lord,
You asked that the little children be allowed to come to you; for it is such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

You entrust them to the care and protection of our communities of faith.

Guide us as we strive to ensure that our catholic communities provide a safe environment for each child.

We pray especially for all those who have been harmed in their childhood. Give them courage in facing the past and lead them to your healing protection. Amen

Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist

The Bishop and Priests are the Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. In EXTRAORDINARY circumstances the priest may call upon those who have been duly instituted acolytes or even other faithful who have been deputed as Extraordinary Ministers.

In cases of necessity the priest may depute suitable faithful for a single occasion.

Lectors and Readers

Reading and proclaiming God's Word

A reader (sometimes called a lector or minister of God's Word) is the person who proclaims the first or second reading during the Liturgy of the Word. The ministry of the church requires a person who is of Good character and serious about the practice of their faith. Readers who believe that sacred scripture is the Word of God and have respect for God's presence in that word will help to convey these beliefs to the congregation. The reader has an appreciation that he or she is proclaiming God's word and that when this word is read with clarity, sincerity and conviction it has the power to touch lives and change hearts.

The Liturgy of the Word is one of the two principal parts of the Mass. Just as the assembly is fed at the table of the Eucharist with the Body and Blood of Christ, so it is fed at the table of the Word with the words of God in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6). The word of God is like water to the thirsty soul. Therefore, the quality of the reader's proclamation determines whether his or her service will help or hinder the assembly in its listening and faith response to God's word.

Quote

'God the Father is a deep root, the Son is the shoot that breaks forth into the world, and the Spirit is that which spreads beauty and fragrance.'

Tertullian, an early ecclesiastical writer (c.160AD - c.225AD)

Sacred Space

'Christian worship is of equal value whether it is done in a grand cathedral in Europe, an ancient site in the Holy Land or a small country church in outback Australia. When we create a space for worship by building a church, chapel or prayer room we set aside the space as special. From God's point of view the whole of creation is holy. However, we are human and we need to create special places to help us to heighten our awareness of the presence of God. It is in this context that we can talk of sacred space, that is, space that reminds us of an aspect of God. We may be reminded of the majesty of God through a soaring Cathedral or the humanity of Jesus crucified by a humble wooden chapel. God does not need our churches to be God, but we do need our buildings and spaces to help us remember God.'

Offertory - We have been told

(David Haas)

Antiphon

We have been told, We've seen his face and heard his voice Alive in our hearts

"live in my love with all your heart,
As the Father has loved me,
So I have loved you".

"As the Father has loved me,
So I have loved you"

"I am the vine, you are the branches,
And all who live in me will bear great fruit."

"You are my friends, if you keep my commands,
No longer slaves, I call you friends."

"No greater love is there than this:
To lay down one's life for a friend."

Communion - Brighter Than Snow

- Psalm 51 - Ruth Elaine Schram

Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow,
Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow.
Have mercy on me according to your
loving kindness.
Wash me and I'll be brighter, brighter than snow.

Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow.
Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow.
Create a clean heart in me, O Lord,
renew, my spirit.
Wash me and I'll be brighter,
brighter than snow.

Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow.
Wash me and I'll be brighter than
snow.
Have mercy on me according to your
loving kindness.
Wash me and I'll be brighter,
brighter than snow,
brighter than snow.

I am the Bread of Life (GA 204)

I am the bread of life
You who come to me shall not hunger
and who believe in me shall not thirst
No one can come to me,
Unless the Father beckons.

Refrain:

And I will raise him up
And I will raise him up
And I will raise him up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever, you shall live
for ever.

Refrain

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood,
you shall not have life within you.

Refrain

I am the resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me,
Even though you die,
You shall live forever.

Refrain

Yes, Lord, I Believe That you are the Christ,
The Son of God,
Who has come Into the world.

Refrain

Recessional - Sing a New Song

Sing a new song unto the Lord;
Let your song be sung
From mountains high
Sing a new song unto the Lord;
Singing Alleluia!

Yahweh's people dance for joy.
O come before the Lord
And play for him on glad tambourines
And let your trumpets sound.

Refrain

Rise O Children from your sleep;
Your saviour now has come.
He has turned your sorrow to joy
And filled your soul with song.

Refrain

Glad my soul for I have seen
The glory of the Lord.
The trumpets sound;
The dead shall be raised,
I know my saviour lives.
